“Story for boys telling of Willis Thorton’s adventures in Colorado, where he recovered a valuable gold mine his father had discovered and righting the wrong his uncle had tried to do him and his mother.” -Publishers Weekly

“A first-class story written by a capable and an energetic young man who is keenly enthusiastic about the value of intelligent efforts for boys’ welfare – a story with plenty of snap and action, an interesting plot, and just enough of right teaching to appeal to boys.” -The Christian Advocate

“Almost every page in the new book for boys, Buffalo Roost, tells the fact that its author knows the American boy, knows the call of nature to the heart of a boy, and best of all knows how, in story form, to bring the boy face to face with the things in nature which most appeal to him.” -Ralph C. Goodwin, Associate General Secretary, Young Men’s Christian Association, San Francisco, California
