Regan Worth enjoys her life as the daughter of Jazz pianist and notorious bootlegger, Blazing Fingers Worth. However, she is not pleased when her father insists that Hanover Fist accompany her to the social event of the year -- the christening of a new riverboat casino. I mean, seriously? Hanover Fist is a private detective. What kind of impression will that make? But when strange things happen at the casino, and a jazz singer turns up dead, Regan decides it's not a bad thing to have Hanover by her side.
