BLUE COLLAR ROMANCE:

Shawna Redding thought she had it all – until a chance encounter with a man in a leather jacket and a flirtatious mouth leaves her questioning what she's done with her life. A great job, money in the bank, and a penny pinching boyfriend focused on networking for his own career means that there's stability in her future, but all Shawna ever wanted was to travel and have fun. The boring life she's had is about to be flipped on its head.

Clark Upton can't be tied down, and he's not afraid to tell the truth. When his path crosses with Shawna's to lead to a night of letting go of life's worries on the back of his motorcycle, he thinks she'll just be another night of fun – but could there be something deeper between them? After all, when Clark finds Shawna on his doorstep demanding that he take her on a road trip, he can't say no.

Caught between a stable life and a life of excitement, will Shawna kick the urge to live wild and free, or will the pull of adventure and the beating of her heart lead her into Clark's bad boy arms?
