A Sweet, Naive Assistant

Desperate to pay her mother's medical bills, Caitlyn Bennett applies for the personal assistant position to reclusive billionaire Sterling MacKay. To her surprise she's hired, even though she barely meets the qualifications for the job. Following her heart, she throws herself into her work vowing to do the very best she can. But she soon finds out her definition of best is not what her boss has in mind.

A Damaged, Jaded Billionaire

Having lost most of his vision to a car accident, Sterling MacKay demands perfection from everyone employed by him. When his latest hire, a recent college graduate, doesn't understand what he needs, he's forced to teach her the demands of the job. But soon he's not satisfied to have her only as his personal assistant. He wants her in his bed, under him, doing all those things he likes to do. But first he has to convince her she'd like them too.
