We Will Be Free: Overlanding In Africa and Around South America Mr Graeme Robert Bell

In 2010, the Bell family, Graeme, Luisa, Keelan and Jessica, set off in their Land Rover on an African adventure which would ultimately afflict them with the overlanding addiction. After touring Southern and East Africa for six months they returned to South Africa, to normal life and the corporate grind . Only touring in their trusty Landy, Mafuta, could still their trembling hands and sate their insatiable hunger. The decision was made to live an alternative travel lifestyle, a decision which would take them and Mafuta to South America where, through a combination of good luck and bad decisions, they circumnavigated the continent for over two years before setting their sights on North America. This is their story, the hard days, the laughter, the breakdowns, the life lessons and the love for each other and the road less travelled. The author, Graeme was born in Johannesburg but loves Durban and Cape Town. As a self-educated adult, he cites his primary cultural influences as Johnny Rotten, Jim Morrison, Jello Biafra, Christopher Hitchens, Louis L'Amour, Fight Club, Martin Amis, and The King James Bible. In his spare time, he watches "girl's street fight" on YouTube or drinks beer while staring at his Land Rover, if there is no Wi-Fi. You can follow our adventures at www.a2aexpedition.com

Gary Wilson:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's internal or real their leisure activity. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this We Will Be Free: Overlanding In Africa and Around South
