Book 4

Within the National History Library Of Congress, the history that lies inside the museum speaks louder than the Shrieking Banshee's screams.

Certain enemies are bringing Omen's chasing to an end.

There's also a talked about conjurer from the deserts of Egypt creating the kind of illusions the folks wish the gypsies would do.

Now the excursion everyone is vamped about, sees the lake nieraid's being kept in glass tanks, and chariots of fire being driven into sunsets by greek gods.

While the sky may be the limit to all of history inside the museum, the ape monks have announced the winner of The Trial Hunting Cherokee's Tribe.

Omen will uncover his own past, bringing him to surrender himself to the wiccans or become one of them.

But Omen wants one thing back that was taken away from him aside from his freedom to live a normal life... The justice his gypsy family deserves.
