Fever Elizabeth Lowell

Rancher Rye swore he'd never get burnt again, but now he's feeling the heat . . . - Lisa Johansen, world traveler, had tasted the exotic and seen the extraordinary. But when a rancher called Rye came into her life, he ignited a feverish desire foreign to her mind, her body, her soul . . . Rye was certain Lisa was like the gold-digging women in his past. He'd been burned before, and he vowed he would make no more mistakes. Still, he found it hard to resist her. Before he knew it, he'd gotten dangerously close to the flame. But it was too late – he was addicted to the fire.

This is a first time regular print hardcover previously available in a mass market edition.
