Sign with Your Baby (Teach Yourself) Jane Jarvis

Covering much more than standard dictionaries, including bilingual and special needs, this book features an accompanying quick-reference CD for easy learning

This book and CD package provides both practical and background information on how signing to and with a young child can enhance communication, emotional bond, and their language/behavioral development in many different ways. The book first offers a full overview of the history and benefits of signing before outlining the essential signs and moving on to more detailed communication. From bilingual and special needs children, this manual covers development right up to the learning of the alphabet and phonics for older children. The author is a qualified instructor, making this suitable both for parents taking courses and those just wanting to practice at home.
