The secret lives of six married professional and business men, who jointly own a house which is hidden from their wives, are threatened when one of the wives hires a detective agency to help her escape from a long loveless, sexless marriage. The uniqueness and end of the marriages are fresh, enlightening comedy that demonstrates the possibility of it happening to any woman or a close relative. Although fiction, it is a very realistic exposure of what may be hidden in thousands of marriages with absolutely no knowledge of anyone who has contact with them, not even their own parents or adult siblings. The setting is in the upper half of Georgia, where the living is gracious and the weather is mostly kind, and where traditional marriages and family values are still dear to their hearts. When life's routines in the red clay hills need a nudge, Atlanta is a welcoming change for the stout-hearted.
