Expect Miracles

Expect Miracles

Four years ago, Mary Ellen decided to send good news to friends and family online, so when she encountered a story of faith or hope she passed it along. Mary Ellen sent stories about real people who experienced a miracle: a destitute woman whose prayer for financial help is answered by a stranger's kindness, letters from each member of a family thanking the man who couldn't stand outside their burning house without trying to help -- and their gratitude to a person who risked his life to save theirs. People began sending Mary Ellen their own stories, and asking to be added to her list. Expect Miracles is a collection of the best of these stories from the site's first three years. Powerfully moving, these stories touch the heart and lift the spirit.
