The Cure for IDK: 36 Writing Lessons to Make Your Students LOL (grades 6-8) Catherine Killingsworth

The Cure for IDK isn't a typical lesson book. It is frank, funny, and full of lessons that are simultaneously entertaining and challenging. More importantly, it specifically appeals to middle school students--the bright-eyed eager beavers as well as the more apathetic adolescents. Each of the 36 lessons within fully integrates reading, writing, and oral presentation skills by offering interactive games, engaging reading selections, copious peer examples, and exciting writing prompts. The Cure for IDK shows students not just how to write but why they should want to--and how much fun it can be. Use these lessons individually, in units, or as a year-long weekly curriculum and watch your students' love for literature grow. Proceeds from the sale of this book go to benefit the Deep Center, a nonprofit organization that offers free writing workshops to public school students in Savannah, Georgia. Deep is a community of teachers who teach together, learn together, and plan fantastic, fool-proof lessons together (the most successful of which you will find in this book).
