The Devil Beats His Wife: And Other Stories From The Low Country Horace Mungin

Each Story is told in the voice of a master story-teller. The lead story "The Man Who Heard the Dead," is a tightly written suspenseful present day tale involving clairvoyance and deception. The main characters are well-educated black professionals who inadvertently uncover foul deeds of the past. The author offers poignant descriptions of the old abandon black churches that dot secondary roads in rural areas of the South. And, an ending that's there...then maybe not.
