Staccato House Steven Mace

Freelance journalist Nathan Carr is investigating the routine case of a loan shark menacing a family when he is sent a mysterious and sinister video. He suspects that he is being watched and followed, and starts to question if both his case and the video are connected. The video footage leads him into a dangerous web of murder and dark intrigue, where he discovers the existence of intricate conspiracies, police corruption, occult secret societies and arcane cults. Soon the repercussions of his investigations begin to strike close to home...
