La juventud guerrillera: Guatemala, 1960-1980 (Spanish Edition) Silvia Bollat

La historia es enseñanza. La historia representa las huellas de un pasado nacional y cuando el pasado no se esclarece es semejante a caminar sobre la arena. En este libro de Silvia Bollat el lector tendrá la oportunidad de conocer y comprender los métodos de captación que varias instituciones utilizaron para involucrar a algunos jóvenes de diferentes sectores de la sociedad en el conflicto armado en Guatemala. Este involucramiento creó un escenario de dolor, no solamente a ellos sino también a sus familias.

Silvia Bollat es licenciada en la Enseñanza de Lengua y Literatura y MA en Historia, ambos títulos obtenidos en la Universidad Francisco Marroquín - UFM (y ambos Summa Cum Laude). Actualmente es catedrática de Historia a nivel de grado y posgrado en varias facultades de la misma Universidad. Por su tesis de la Maestría en Historia obtuvo mención de excelencia en investigación por única vez en los posgrados de la UFM. Además de dedicarse a la academia, Silvia Bollat es poeta y narradora, cuya obra más representativa es la novela "No llores por Helena" que, al tener el éxito entre los lectores, ha llegado a tener varias ediciones.
