At Summary to Action we understand that time is of the essence so we have summarised all your favourite business books into easy to digest chapter by chapter notes. Each chapter takes between 1-5 minutes to read. We believe the most important part of reading a business book is to make progress and take action after learning.

With this in mind we have created short actions after each chapter based on key learnings. We also provide a checklist at the end of the book to keep our readers on the right track to making progress.

Please note this is an unofficial summary of “The Lean Startup” not the original book. For full understanding we recommend you purchase the full version and use our notes alongside this.
