After walking with God, marriage and raising children are the most important responsibilities in a married man's life. With so many broken families in our culture, these lessons have profoundly impacted the lives of men wanting to be a better husband and father.

Marriage and Raising Children trains a man how to practically give up his life for his wife. It equips him to have a successful one-on-one time with his children. Book 2 of the Every Man a Warrior series has a special emphasis on raising teenagers.
