How to Write, Sell and Publish Your Own Songs Ted Lane

An inexperienced songwriter who has the urge to write a song may well wonder about many things. What to write about? How to select a title? How to develop the lyrics? Where the rhymes belong? How long to make the lyric? How to construct a melody? What is commercial appeal? What do the publishers want? What does the public want? How to promote a song? It is hoped that the material contained in the following pages will prove helpful to the inexperienced songwriter. Ted Lane
