Roast Beef, Medium [Annotated] Edna Ferber

Although Emma McChesney, the spirited saleswoman employed with the T. A. Buck Featherloom Petticoat Company, is young, divorced, and working in a chiefly male-dominated field, she is nonetheless both envied and admired throughout the business world for her high moral standards and her drive to do the best she can. In the face of endless discouragement, humiliation, and prejudice, she struggles to create a fulfilling life for herself, as well as for her son, Jock.

These ten short stories, which first appeared in The American Magazine over one-hundred years ago, give a brilliant insight into the culture and social conditions of their time, and we believe they still have the potential to fascinate and amuse audiences of today.

Includes a detailed author biography.
