The Wolf Hunters James Oliver Curwood

It takes place in Canada in the early 1900's. The story of an American boy who has become friends with a Native American boy. He travels to Canada to hunt and trap with his friend in hopes that he can earn money to help his mother. The boys and an Indian guide spend several months in a remote cabin during a harsh winter always on the lookout for an unfriendly, neighboring tribe. Wonderful descriptions of nature and life in the wilderness make this an enjoyable read. What they discovered in an abandoned cabin is an incentive for further adventure.
