Room 147 Andy Southwood

Matt, from London, has a photography business to promote online. He joins social networking sites, aiming to reach out to his intended audience. It was through one of these that he meets Mary Lou from Texas. After several months chatting with her, he decides to abandon Britain for a few weeks and visit his new friend. She is still rebuilding her life, following a bitter divorce. In Matt, she believes a new man has come into her world, better than any man before. What Matt fails to tell her is that he has a hidden motive for visiting America. Whilst in Dallas he also meets Mary Lou's friends, Carla and Brandi. He becomes inadvertently involved in numerous steamy scenes and some near misses. A story of deceit and betrayal begins to unfold, culminating in scornful revenge and injustice.
