Justine learned the hard way not to get involved with her patients or their families. Trying to get over her broken heart she decides she is going to have a one night stand. Something she thought she would never do. When she see's Ryan at Club 81, an upscale dance club she often visits, her choice has been made. Ryan Johnson has never met anyone who caught his eye until Justine. When he meets Justine he instantly wants her. After a passionate night together Ryan knew it would never be enough. To his surprise he awakes to an empty bed. Justine a nurse at Memorial Hospital is about to admit her new patient. Something about this older gentleman reminds her of someone. Her patient is grumpy, in a bad mood and rude. When she runs into his son she is shocked to see who it is. Ryan, now she knows why this man reminds her of someone. Ryan makes it known to Justine he wants to see her again. Can Justine get over her rule of never dating a patient or a patients family member, and all her hurt to give Ryan a chance?
