Under the Dog Star John Holland

In this new collection of poetry from the pen of Australian writer John Holland, we see a further development of the ideas and concepts explored in his first book, DRY BONES.

“UNDER THE DOG STAR is a powerful collection that takes us here and there, inside and out the mind of the poet, observing the struggle, pain and doubts no human escapes, watching the intelligence dancing in a circle of stones around an inner drain. This collection feels made in the nighttime where the poet has dared to face the demons for us, finding his way back via the Dog Star's bright beam with packages tucked under his arm of truths he discovered and gives to us to open in the comfort of daylight, after our peaceful sleep.” ~ Nia Simone, author.

DRY BONES, which was published first as an e-book by Hammer & Anvil Books, has been widely acclaimed; as an e-book, it reached #1 Poetry / Australia and Oceania title on the Amazon Kindle bestsellers list. UNDER THE DOG STAR builds on this success while creating a new space within both Australian and world poetry.
