The Four Feathers A. E. W. Mason

Harry Faversham has everything a man can dream of. He is an officer at the Royal Army, is engaged to the beautiful Ethne, and has the admiration of all his friends and acquaintances. But when he resigns his position in the army, due to news of a British expedition to Egypt, his three friends and his fiancée accuse him of cowardice and present him with four white feathers. Now, Harry will have to face a perilous journey to a strange country and survive the dangers of a war in order to prove his value and regain his integrity.
